It's Tax Time Again, Riddell Warns Residents

Sad as it may seem, the time has again arrived to give attention to the very unpopular but very necessary matter of preparing our Federal income tax returns. The filing period began on Wednesday, Jan. 2, and will continue through Monday, April 15.

While returns will not be delinquent until that later date, the taxpayer who files his return early will find that he has a number of advantages, not the least of which are an earlier refund if he is entitled to one and the satisfaction of having completed the disturbing task.

Self-help in the preparation of returns will again be stressed by the Internal Revenue Service.

"The return forms are practically the same as those used last year," said Robert A. Riddell, district director of Internal Revenue for Southern California, "and most taxpayers will be able to complete their entire returns without any assistance other than that provided in the excellent instruction booklet which is available."

He suggested further that if help is needed from the Internal Revenue Service, the taxpayer have in mind all necessary facts that apply to his problem, and all 1956 records in hand which bear upon his question, and as much of this information as possible entered on the return.

Riddell, into whose office more than 3,000,000 returns will pour between now and April 15, stated that taxpayers who need advice on problems in connection with the preparation of their returns may secure it at any of the Internal Revenue field offices.

On Jan. 5 at the Nativity Catholic Church, the marriage of Miss Juanita Figueroa and Andrew Lechuga was solemnized by Fr. Frederick Callahan.

By BILLIE ROBERTSON
FA 8-7385

When Bennie Stewart, 30, stepped out of his car in his Petroleum Ave. garage Thursday night, an explosion occurred within the auto and a car door struck him in the back as it started to swing shut.

The injured Stewart stumbled to the nearby home of John Edmond, where Edmond called an ambulance and took him to the Harbor General Hospital.

Police, after examining the car, said the explosion was

Miss Mary Lopez and Dolores Lopez preceded the bride in the ceremony and Romiro Lechuga acted as best man. Bobby Lehan was the usher.

A reception was held at the Parra home, 21539 Vera St., Wilmington.

I had as guests for lunch Wednesday my aunt, Minnie Laney; sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Robertson, and two cousins, Lucy and Lena.

On the following Sunday we had company come in from Missouri. Ralph's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Mace, Springfield, also Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robertson and family were here. A very nice visit for such a raining and miserable day. Before the day was over my brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Milford, Torrance, came in. A ham dinner was served to the crowd.

There was a father and son banquet at Normandale Playground for the boys who had been playing football. John Gibson, C. L. Revell of Cal-Metal Corp., Peter O'Brien, Johnny Lindell of 7-Up Foundation, Tom Williams, SC quarter-miler; Sid Wing, SC track captain and Sam Minami were at the head table with Y. A. Hammit.

Peter O'Brien, chairman of the boys' sports committee introduced Minami, who had donated the baseball trophy and Revell, who donated the football trophy. Revell presented the football trophy to the Beavers. D. D. Mullins, 1541 W. 221st St., the Beaver coach, accepted it for the team.

Councilman Gibson complimented the group on their interest in youth work and athletics. Interest in activities has shown a marked increase and facilities has improved.

Johnny Lindell presented one of the boys with a baseball and spoke of the value of sportsmanship. Sid Wing, as captain of the SC track team, held the interest of the group as he showed pictures of SC Stanford track meet and the SC-Notre Dame football game.

The banquet was prepared by mothers of the boys and appreciation was shown by a rising vote of thanks.

The regular meeting of the mothers of the Brownie Troop 216 was held in the home of Billie Garrison at 1524 W. 218th St.

Many suggestions were made for the children. Valentines will be made by the group of 18 girls and will be presented to the children of the Harbor Hospital.

The mothers were told of the Girl Scout cookie sale which will be held from Feb. 8 to 23. Geneva Moore is the troop's chairman and Carol Bree is the neighborhood cookie chairman.

There will be three kinds of cookies on sale—cream sandwiches, chocolate brazil nuts, chocolate mint sticks and brownie edge.

Due to the resignation of the transportation chairman, Kay Votaw, a new chairman was ratified. She is Billie Garrison.

Those present at the meeting was as follows: Dolores Muth, Billie Robertson, Kay Votaw, Wilma Butler, Janie Snee, Carol Bree, Ruth Weil, Geneva Moore, Irene Perry, Lois Ellison and the lovely hostess, Billie Garrison, who served delicious refreshments.

Are you lonesome with time on your hands? If so you are needed as a general volunteer at the General Hospital. Many women and men are needed to help at the hospital. This would strictly be voluntary and you could more or less pick your location.

It includes reading, visiting, writing for the patients, loving the children, helping the doctors and so very many odd and end jobs too numerous to mention. It's a clean pastime

Deadline Set For Psychotic Korean Vets

On Jan. 31, another of the "presumption deadlines" which apply to the disabilities of war veterans will expire.

This unfamiliar term was explained by Mrs. Helen K. Dill, director of the Torrance Area Veterans Service Center, a Community Chest Agency, as follows:

Many ailments which attack men and women in military service get off to a slow start, and may bring serious disabilities only after a person has returned to civilian status. This is true of one on the most frequent residuals of the stresses imposed by military service: mental derangement, which doctors call psychosis.

Jan. 31 Deadline

To give Korean veterans the benefit of the doubt, Congress has said that if they develop a serious psychosis within two years after discharge, or two years after Jan. 31, 1957, their condition will be attributed to military service automatically—by presumption—rather than by actual proof.

But after this deadline, a veteran will have to assemble evidence: medical records, testimony from his commanding officer and buddies, etc., that his condition did in fact begin while he was in uniform.

Evidence Needed

The two-year presumptive period has enabled many a veteran to get hospital and outpatient help from the Veterans Administration to relieve mental stresses. But in order to obtain compensation or pension benefits, he must still assemble evidence — or rather the veteran's family, his friends, and the service officer on the case must build up a case for him, since he is frequently in no condition to do it himself.

The "presumptive period" has tended to make the Service Officer's job easier in many cases. However, after Jan. 31, when a veteran with a mental condition has been out of service longer than two years, the job will be far more formidable. More information can be obtained from Mrs. Dill at 1622 Gramercy Ave.
